STATEMENT OF DIVIDENDS.

Average dividend of 33 Banks in Boston—not including those in South Boston—paid in April on \$35,620,000 capital, was  $3\frac{5.8}{100}$  per cent., and of 40 Banks paid in October on \$36,831,700 capital,  $3\frac{7.1}{100}$  per cent.

Average dividend of 135 Banks out of Boston—including those in South Boston—paid in April on \$28,237,500 capital, was  $3\frac{7.5}{100}$  per cent., and of 136 Banks paid in October on \$28,362,500 capital,  $3\frac{7.8}{100}$  per cent.

Average dividend of 173 Banks in the Commonwealth, paid in April on \$63,857,500 capital, was  $3\frac{7.4}{100}$  per cent., and of 176 Banks paid in October in \$65,194,200 capital,  $3\frac{7.4}{100}$  per cent.

By authority of Acts of the legislature of 1860, the Capital Stock of the Bay State Bank, in Lawrence, was reduced from $500,000 to $375,000, and that of the City Bank of Lynn was increased from $100,000 to $150,000; the Columbian Bank, in Boston, from $750,000 to $1,000,000; the Eagle Bank, in Boston, from $700,000 to $1,000,000; the Lechmere Bank, in Cambridge, from $100,000 to $150,000; the Merchants' Bank, in Lowell, from $100,000 to $150,000; the Shelburne Falls Bank, in Shelburne, from $100,000 to $150,000; the Tremont Bank, in Boston, from $1,250,000 to $1,500,000.

NOTE.—The varied interpretations given the requirements in the Blank Return prescribed by law, which have heretofore produced much incongruity, have, by reason of marginal explanations upon the blank, and references in the printed abstract to former misconceptions, been very generally avoided, and the statements of the conditions of the several Banking institutions of the Commonwealth approximate more nearly actual uniformity than in any former year.

In stating the "Amount of bills in circulation of five dollars and upwards," the Cabot, Franklin County, Gloucester, Mercantile, Merchants', (Salem,) Rockland, Warren, and Wrentham Banks make the unit figure less than five. It is desirable, and necessary, to avoid the appearance of careless and unreliable statement, that in cases where, in answer to the second interrogatory upon the blank, the unit figure is rendered less than five, the occasion of the apparent incongruity should be stated. The explanation would be inserted in the abstract, and all doubt and cause for conjecture thereby removed.

The institutions for savings, in rendering the amount of bank stock owned, should, in conformity to the requirements of law, state, not the par value or the market value of the stocks, but the amount invested in each, and the number of shares.

* Calculated on the returns of 86 banks—the Malden, Marlborough, and West Cambridge institutions not having been in operation one year. The average annual dividend “of last five years” is not required, as heretofore, and the utility of an average of the time and percentage “since last extra dividend was declared,” is not apparent.

* Calculated on the returns of 85 Banks. The Chelsea, Cambridge, Malden, North Brookfield, Milford, South Scituate, Wareham and Barnstable Banks give the rate, but not the amount of their Dividends. The Attleborough and Brighton, the Franklin, in Boston, and the Mechanics', in Lowell, have been in operation less than one year.

† Calculated on the returns of 86 banks.

 The Institutions for Savings, in rendering the amount of bank stock owned should, in conformity to the requirements of law, state, not the PAR VALUE or the MARKET VALUE of the STOCKS, but the AMOUNT INVESTED in each, and the number of shares.

‡ 82 Banks.

§ 80 Banks.

It will be observed that while for the first four years of the half decade covered by this table the number of depositors and the several aggregates of deposit have steadily increased, there has been during the year ending October, 1865, a small diminution of depositors—118; and a decrease in the sum of deposits amounting to $2,621,121.78.

The disproportion between the less number of depositors and the reduction in the aggregation of deposits is presumed to have been occasioned by the withdrawal of those heretofore depositing in larger sums and investing their moneys in the securities of the United States, while the number of persons who invest for saving, in small payments, has probably increased during the past year.

MERCANTILE SAVINGS INSTITUTION—BOSTON.

This corporation,—established under authority of a special enactment, being of peculiar endowment, and not having been deemed of a character for classification with the other Savings Institutions, no report of its condition has before been required, the intention of said Act regarding the application of the General Statutes to the duties of this corporation not being clearly stated as to its public accountability beyond the report to the governor of commissioners appointed by him, covering certain information required as a preliminary to organization and operation.

The Bank Commissioners, under the advice of the attorney-general, having visited said institution and submitted a statement of its condition to the last legislature, it has been deemed advisable to obtain from the corporate officers a report for the year ending on the day in October last upon which the other banking institutions were required to render their conditions. An application therefor was duly answered by a sworn statement for the twelve months ending with the close of October, an abstract of which is given below.
